WRITE A STORY for the Story Box!

Fill in the lines below or tell your story to someone who can write down your words. If you want to draw a picture or write on a blank page, use the back of this piece of paper.

YOUR NAME: _____________________________ AGE: ______

STORY TITLE (Hint: write the story first, then pick a title!): ____________________

WHO?
Once there was a ____________, a ________________, and a ____________.

WHERE WERE THEY?
They were __________________________________________.

WHAT HAPPENED?
First,

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

Next,

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

Last,

________________________________________________________________________

THE END

Stories may be documented and may be published by StoryUP! online or in print with credit given to the author. Visit us at www.storyupphilly.com or on social media @storyupphilly